INDEX

Accrediting schools, methods in use of, 20-30; possible effects of, 37-38.
Admission to college, should admission be by examination or by certificate, papers and discussion, 8-47; method of, 99; age, 100; requirements for, 97-99.
American system of education, 18-19.
Angell, James B., quoted, 29.
Auditing committee, 127; report, 129.

Baxter, Richard, quoted, 9.
Bevier, Louis, jr, on effect of college entrance examinations, 44-46.
Brice, quoted, 74.
Brownell, Jane L., on effect of college entrance examinations on the secondary schools, 30-35.

Canfield, James H., on relative functions and powers of president, trustees and faculty, 75-80.
Carter, J. B., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 125-26.
Certification vs examination system for admission to college, papers and discussion, 20-47.
Cheyney, Edward P., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 121-24.
Clarke, James Freeman, quoted, 112.
Cobb, Charles N., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 126.
College and school, relations between, by Wilson Farrand, 84-101.
College Entrance Examination Board, 19, 87; report of, 47-49; appointment of representatives from secondary schools, 129.
Columbia conferences, 86.
Crane, T. F., on relative functions and powers of president and faculty, 83.

Delegates registered 1902, 134-37.

Elementary school course, 93-94.
English, committee on college entrance requirements, 129; report of, 50-51; work of, 85.
English schools, 11-16.
Entrance examination board, see College Entrance Examination Board.
Examination vs certificate system for admission to college, papers and discussion, 8-47.

Faculty, president and trustees, relative functions and powers, papers and discussion, 51-83.
Farrand, Wilson, response to address of welcome, 7-8; Existing Relations between School and College, 84-101.
Fiske, Thomas S., Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, 47-49.
Fröbel, effect of his teaching on American education, 92.
Fullerton, George Stuart, on functions and powers of the faculty, 64-75.

German schools, 15-18.
Green, James M., on admission to college, 42-44.

Harvard College, entrance requirements, 98.
History, construction of entrance examination paper, papers and discussion, 101-27.
Honorary degrees, 72-74.
Huxley, quoted, 112.

Inspection of schools in accrediting system, 22-23.

Kieffer, John B., report as treasurer, 128-29.
Kindergarten, 91-93.
Kipling, Rudyard, quoted, 12-13, 18

Lord, Eleanor L., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 126-27.

Lyttle, E. W., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 124.

McPherson, Simon J., on functions and powers of trustees, 57-64.
Members, list of 1902-3, 131-34.
Moreland, Sidney T., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 126.

National Educational Association, work of committees, 84-85, 87.
Nominations, committee on, 128.

Officers for 1898-1903, 137-40.
Options, in entrance requirements, 98-99; in examination questions, 109.

President, trustees and faculty, relative functions and powers, papers and discussion, 51-83.
Professional schools, 94-95.
Publication of association for 1902, 141.

Remsen, Ira, address of welcome, 5-7; Relative Functions and Powers of President, Trustees and Faculty, 51-57.
Russell, James E., Educational Value of Examinations as the Culmination of the Preparatory Course, 8-19; on admission to college, 46.

Sachs, Julius, on effect of college entrance examinations on the secondary school, 35-39; on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 125.
Sadler, Michael E., quoted, 11-12, 15.
Salmon, Lucy M., How Should the Entrance Examination Paper in History be Constructed, 101-14.
School, relations with college, by Wilson Farrand, 84-101.
See also Secondary schools.
Secondary schools, effect of college entrance examinations on, 30-39.
Sessions, summary of, 3-4.
Seth, James, quoted, 113.
Shephard, Henry E., on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 124-25.
State University of Iowa, accrediting system, 23.
Stoddard, Francis H., Report of Committee on College Entrance Requirements in English, 50-51.
Sullivan, James, on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 114-21.
Swain, Joseph, on admission to college, 42.

Taylor, Henry L., on admission to college, 46-47.
Taylor, James M., on relative functions and powers of president, trustees and faculty, 80-83.
Technical schools, 94-95.
Treasurer's report, 128-29.
Trustees, president and faculty, relative functions and powers, papers and discussion, 51-83.

University of Chicago, accrediting system, 23.
University of Illinois, accrediting system, 23.
University of Michigan, accrediting system, 20-30.
University of Minnesota, State High School Board, 21-22
University of Wisconsin, accrediting system, 23.

Van Dyke, Paul, on construction of entrance examination paper in history, 124.

White, Andrew D., quoted, 17-18.
Whitney, A. S., Methods in Use of Accrediting Schools, 20-30.
Witmer, Lightner, on admission to college, 39-41.